

PINE/SPRUCE (STUDIO)

“vitality, continuity”

311/344 SF

Pine is often used for interior wood trim, bridges, and ship masts and the bark was formerly used for tanning leather. Early in our history, tar and turpentine were obtained from this tree. To date the oldest recorded Pine is 307 years old.

